PEERLESS TAKES AN ENVIRONMENTALLY FRIENDLY APPROACH TO MOUNT MANUFACTURING

- Continued Efforts Enable Peerless To Do Their Part In Preserving The Environment -

CHICAGO, IL – March 18, 2008 – Peerless Mounts, the industry leader in professional-grade audio/visual mounting solutions today announced its new initiative to go green in an effort to help preserve the environment. By working together on a daily basis with suppliers, Peerless creates a more sustainable approach to manufacturing professional-quality, professional-grade mounting solutions while minimizing its environmental footprint.

“Peerless Mounts commitment to preserving the environment includes recycling programs and energy conservation initiatives,” said, Mike Campagna, president Peerless Mounts. “We are dedicated to continuing to develop environmentally conscious manufacturing processes year after year.”
