PEERLESS INTRODUCES NEW SMARTMOUNT™ SR LINE OF CARTS FOR FLAT PANEL SCREENS

-- Versatile Carts Provide Easy Mobility, Safety and Functionality--

CHICAGO, IL – February 22, 2007 – Peerless Industries, Inc., the industry leader in professional-grade audio/visual mounting solutions, today introduced its new SmartMount™ SR Line of Flat Panel TV Carts for 32 inch to 60 inch flat panel screens weighing up to a UL-listed 150 pounds. The new carts combine safety and functionality to deliver optimal flat panel screen mobility and versatility for multiple applications.

Maximum Flat Panel Mobility with Centralized Equipment Placement

The SR Line of flat panel TV carts is equipped with four-inch, non-marking casters that enable ease of maneuverability so displays can be moved conveniently in boardrooms, meeting facilities, offices, hotel lobbies or other locations. Two casters lock in place to provide complete stability wherever the cart is placed. The SR carts also include a metal or tinted glass shelf that offers space for A/V components weighing up to 50 pounds each, ensuring equipment and user safety.

The carts feature continuous vertical screen placement and tilt angle adjustments at -2 degrees, 0 degrees, or 5 degrees so users can obtain the ideal viewing angle. Three cable management ports located on the back of the cart enable easy routing of cords and cables, preventing accidental snagging and provide a clean and clutter-free look. These features also make the SR carts an excellent option for digital signage applications in hallways or lobbies.

Accessories Add Functionality and Versatility

SR Line of flat panel TV carts is available with a variety of accessories for added storage space and versatile equipment placement. In addition to extra shelf accessories, the SR carts offer a laptop arm that rotates out of the way when not in use, a video conferencing shelf to secure a video camera, a 20' electrical cord wrap for mobility and convenience, and various other accessories to tailor the cart to meet specific uses.

Pricing and Availability

The new SR Line of flat panel TV carts is available now in black with optional metal or tinted glass shelving and universal or screen-specific adapter plates.
